

WATER AMBASSADORS CANADA PRIVACY POLICY

In accordance with applicable laws, Water Ambassadors Canada (the organization) is committed to protecting the privacy of its water team members, prayer team members, donors, employees, directors, officers, volunteers and any other persons about or from whom the organization collects personal information. The organization embraces the principles of the Canadian Standards Association Model Code for the Protection of Personal Information to ensure that all personal information is properly collected, used only for the purposes for which it is collected and is disposed of in a safe and timely manner when no longer required.

Except for the implied consent to collect, use and retain personal information, no personal information will be sold, rented, leased or otherwise made available to any person without the explicit consent of the participant. He or she has the right, at any time, to withdraw his or her implied or explicit consent for the use of his or her personal information for any or all previously authorized uses.

With respect to the privacy of personal information the above means that all participants have given their implied consent to use their personal information for all internal purposes of the organization to the extent that such use is in agreement with the by-laws and purposes of the organization from time to time.

Other persons or organizations who act for, or on behalf of, the organization are required to comply with the principles and the Policy and will be given restricted access to personal information.

Any inquiry, request or concern related to privacy matters should be made in writing to: Jennifer Hill at Water Ambassadors Canada.